JAPS SING WAR SONGS WHEN ALIEN BILL IS BEING DISCUSSED

Crowds Demand Attack upon Philipines and Hawaii—Diplomats Think only Christianity can Prevent War with United States

TOKYO, April 20.—The situation brought about by the California alien land holding bill is becoming increasingly serious. A mass meeting today composed for the most part of irresponsible people demanded the most extreme means of retaliation by Japan. During the gathering, the singing of war songs aroused the feelings of many of the lower classes who were present.

Anonymous writers in the news papers give an outline of plans for the seizure of the Philippines and Hawaii and at the same time demand the Japanese government's submissive attitude. It is said that the changed conditions in Japan make it impossible for the government to restrain the newspapers in the lower classes.

On the other hand government circles are showing spirit. Hunt Wright of New York, Dr. L. C. Molyneux and John L. Mott, secretaries of the international committee of the Young Men's Christian Association were the guests at a luncheon given by Baron Noguchi, Minister of the foreign minister, at which three some of the most prominent Japanese and Americans were present. A very cordial feeling prevailed.

Shortly after the luncheon Major Hubie Peabody and Mott visited a number of representative Japanese Christians and Americans in the residence of County Shig in the Okuma former premier, a mediator of foreign affairs. Count Okuma delivered a speech during which he said that diplomats, courts and commercial men were here and that only the influence of Christianity remained. Otherwise,

A Few Facts That Amazed One Woman.

By JOHN P. TAYLOR

Two women met the other day and presented one to me.

No I haven't read about the sale. You see I never read advertisements.

You don't? cried the other in astonishment. Then let me tell you something. The advertisements in the newspapers today are the greatest messengers of intelligence concerning our every day needs that we have.

Don't you know that it is a real art to write advertisements? You have to possess brains you have to know how to write clearly with accuracy with conviction with power with truth. You must be able to exercise descriptive power, and all so simply that it seems like child's play to do it.

An advertisement is not merely a collection of words. It is an announcement that has a vital bearing up on the needs of the people. It speaks economy and opportunity. Those are some of the reasons why YOU should read advertisements at least occasionally.

You have convinced me. I will read the other woman, I will read advertisements hereafter.

Every woman will profit by reading the advertisements in THE EAGLE.

he declared war was impending.

Mr. Mott agreed in replying that the influence of Christianity was now superlative.

Dispatches were sent to the meeting to President Wilson and others imploring him to use his plenipotentiary influence on Christians and thoughtful people to avoid a collision.

At the mass meeting or protest last night there was an intense anti-American sentiment. Dr. S. C. Stedman, who is one of the plenipotentiary delegates, told the audience in his speech, "I have no love for my country."

A日本 is here to do the best he can and inside a few weeks it will be empty. It will not talk or the whole affair will end in a series of interviews and he afterward returned to his own country.

Mrs. Radcliffe says that her husband had been away from home and was shot when he returned and she had to rescue him from the hospital.

Another charge that of shooting at a man named Martin has been pending against Mrs. Radcliffe by police say.

Professors H. W. and Anna Smith of Ashland, Route 2, are in Dothan today.

Mr. W. F. Johnson has a home from Austin, Tex., where he has been attending college.

The brilliant wedding celebration Friday night at S. C. and M. A. Steele home and Mr. Tom Steele is the contracting parties was the social event of the season.

The costumes of the little girl that took part in the festivities were exquisitely done and combining beautifully with the pretty show of flowers carried by the bride and her attendants. All of the Phillips' gentlemen were dressed in their own brand new suits with boutonnieres and white gloves carrying out the general scheme of costume which prevailed in all a gathering of this chaste church affair.

The order of entrance and arrangement of the bride's party was very composed and graceful bearing. The participants gave the impression of thought and ability necessary to the planning of every detail.

The praise for this splendidly conducted entertainment belongs to Miss Harris of Rose Hill School. Miss Matthews of Grammar School and those who assisted them in making the event successful.

MAN FATALLY SHOT; WIFE IS PUT IN JAIL

COLUMBUS, Ga., April 20.—George Radcliffe, a merchant, is at the city hospital wounded, it is believed fatally, and his wife, Mrs. Radcliffe, is in the county jail charged with an attempt to murder. It is her husband that which the public believe will be the case, the charge being that he was changed to murder.

It is reported that the man who was shot, a member of the Chinese community, was killed when he left the place where he was found.

Since the recent shake-up in Alabama, it seems that Gov. O'Neal is taking his time about issuing pardons and paroles.

The Southern Express Company let $5,000 get away from it this day when that amount of currency was being expressed from a bank in Brunswick to another bank in Atlanta.

TO HIM WHO WAITSThe war with Japan failed to materialize on the schedule Capt. Hobson fixed for $\frac{1}{4}$ about two years ago. The headlines would indicate that there is some prospect of war, but, unless Christianity helps out the down of peace.WE ARE DOING NOW.

An item in the Constitution the other day stated that Georgia is losing $10,000,000 a year because it is not properly organized to look after the state's common interest.

The difference to trade boundaries scattered throughout the state is great deal for their respective localities," says the Constitution. What the Chamber of Commerce has done for the city of Atlanta and the territory contiguous is an illustration. "But the general if friendly, rivalry for results in the interest of the state-at-large are apt to be neglected," says the article.

There is no way of calculating exactly just how much a well organized board is worth to a community, and where there is such an organization in every town the results for the state would be satisfactory.

Dothan has plenty of evidence of money that was brought in other towns, and this territory by the welfare of the commercial organization and when this work is left off it will be evident.

It should be the duty of some one to look after correspondence and inquiries about this section, for many such inquiries are made.

When we get some new citizen the whole community will profit by it in a certain ratio.

NEED OF EDUCATIONAL SINCERITY

In Europe no university would accept the responsibility of a medical school with the same obligation of support and with the same educational ideals under which it conducts other departments of instruction. In America alone does one find a college or a university leading the shelter of its name and its charter to a medical school which it neither controls nor supports, in whose ideals of teaching, are on an entirely different plane from those maintained in the other departments of its work. Examples of this sort of relation are given by Prof. H. B. Pritchett, president of the Carnegie Foundation in a recent issue of the Journal of the American Medical Association. Bowdoin College and the Maine College of Medicine at Portland, the Marquette University and the Milwaukee Medical College, the University of Southern California and the Los Angeles College of Physicians and Surgeons, Loyola and the Pennington Medical College, Wilmette University, S. D. in Oregon, the medical department, the University of Tennessee and the medical school at Memphis Union University and the Albany Medical School, The Foothills Memorial University and its medical school at Knoxville, the Texas Christian University and the Fort Worth School of Medicine, Cotton University and its medical school at Lincoln, Neb., are all instances of this sort of relationship.

GIFT RID OF THE STUMPS

Although the Southern farmer is a general rule on an average produces smaller yields per acre than farmers in other sections they receive as much or more for their products of their land. Their profits or yearly earnings are less because they cultivate fewer acres at a larger expense per acre. This is chiefly due to their failure to use sufficient work and labor saving implements.

It took time and cost money to remove these obstacles to cheap cultivation of land but the time to come when the stumps should be removed from all cultivated land. It costs less to remove them than to allow them to remain on the land. The crops that may be grown on the land and they occupy the extra cost of cultivation which they cause will pay for their removal in a year or two. The stump puller should be on every farm where there are stumps on the land. If there are not enough stumps to justify the purchase of a stump puller or if the farmer is not financially able to buy one alone he should try to work in yet his neighbors to join with him in the joint purchase of a machine.

Too often when we feel that we are not able to do all of a certain piece of work we allow time to have a reason for doing a little. Stumps should be removed as fast as possible and a good stump puller is a great help in clearing the land of stumps wherever we go. Why not join with your neighbor and buy a stump puller in buy me alone if you can and then a few extra acres this year? It will pay.—The Progressive Farmer

AppropriationsPeople's Eyes Being Opened.

Only in the recent past did we find no longer political fulminations, Alabama, from Phillip O'Neal, Tom Long, P. G. Boynton and J. G. Oakley. They have fallen out among themselves and are talking about each other. If they ever had any respect one for the other they appear to have lost it. In the meantime the innocent and unassuming people at large are having their eyes opened, and thousands of those who are responsible for the present State administration are ashamed of themselves.

Dothan has plenty of evidence of money that was brought in other towns, and this territory by the welfare of the commercial organization and when this work is left off it will be evident.

It should be the duty of some one to look after correspondence and inquiries about this section, for many such inquiries are made.

Beside the Question

The Tuscaloosa News is not the Alabama paper that is wiping the dust blown from Monticello.

But what is the use of this palaver? The interested people of Alabama don't care a rap whether or not it was going to be endorsed. Or else for appointment. What they want to know is the reason for the governor's failure to discover the crookedness in the medical department after he had been formed by Long that it was going to be.

They want to know why a coat of white wash was applied to a department of the state government when it was crooked. This talk about on document is a lot of twaddle that has nothing to do with the main question in which topic are interested — Mobile Register.

Why They Married

Local card were sent out to all the married men in a certain town of West in New York carrying the question: "Why did you marry?" says the Chicago Record Herald. The following are some of the answers returned:

"I was trying to find out what I have been trying for fifteen years to find out."

"Married to get even with her mother and never have."

"Was tricked into it and thought it was my last chance." "I've found out now that freedom and happiness are not the same."

"Because I was too lazy to work." "Because Smith told me that the other young fellow had proposed to her." "I'm a dog."

"The old man thought eight years of marriage was long enough."

"I was impulsive and hasty and wanted someone to make me happy." "N. B. She makes me lively yet."

"I was tired of buying ice cream and candies and going to theaters and church and wanted a rest. Have saved money."

"I don't stir me up."

"Because I thought she was among a thousand, now I sometimes think she is a thousand among one."

"Because I did not then have the experience I now have."

"The governor was going to give me his foot and I took his duck to his hand."

"I thought it would be cheaper than a batch of prompt suit."

"It's the same fool question about friends and neighbors and."

"Because I had more money than I knew what to do with and now have more to do with than I have money."

"I wanted a companion of the opposite sex." P. S.—She is still opposite site.

Don't mention it.

That difficulty in unlocking the door at night and wanted somebody in the house to let me in.

"Because it's just my luck."

"I didn't intend to do it."

"I yearned for company. We now have company all the time—her folks."

"I married to get the best wife in the world."

"Because I asked her if she had no one. She said she would. I think she's got me."

There is more danger in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. It is a chronic disease and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, goes on to become a constitutional disease. It can be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Chaffee, Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional care on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to 100 drops a day, according to the case. It is a tonic and astringent throughout the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and samples.

DANGER FROM GRIPPE

Ideas in that Cough and Weak Work Out Condition

Grippe, pleurisy pneumonia, this are prone to be found at this time of the year.

To prevent grippe from being followed by either pleurisy or pneumonia it is important to drive the last traces of it out of the system quickly.

Our advice is to take Vinol our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil and get your strength and vitality back quickly.

Mrs A. A. Crabb of Strasburg, Va says Grippe left me weak rundown and with a severe cough from which I suffered four years. I tried different remedies but nothing seemed to do me any good until I took Vinol from which I received great benefit. My cough is almost entirely gone and I am strong and well again and I am glad to recommend Vinol to others who suffer as I did.

Try Vinol with the certainty that if it does not benefit you we will give back your money. N. H. McCallum Doctress Dothan, Ala. P. S. For Eczema of Scalp, It's our Sulco Salve. We guarantee it.

Somebody is doing it now. Who? The Dixie Land and Grubbing Contractors. Has just had their President and General Manager to consume about ten million dollars worth of land clearing at $20 per acre down in the vicinity of Lynd Haven Fla. and purchased 1000 acres of land where a By Products plant and resort will be constructed and scientific farming will go carried on yielding great profit to the investor. This company will gradually acquire the land until it is all consumed.

SUC(18)

A man's value in life is determined not so much by what he does by how well he does it. A good worker is worth more than a poor manager.

Success does not mean merely wealth power and position—those things are merely incidental. It means the attainment of the thing aimed at.

No man knows what he can do until he tries. He who ventures nothing gains nothing either in money or in character. Success comes only by striving by bending every effort to the accomplishment of the end desired. The man who wins is the man who tries to win.

It's better to pay 5 per cent and make 25 to 100 per cent than to pay 100 per cent and make 8 to 12 per cent interest. Isn't you shackles about to fall off now. Wake up and get wiser.

SUFFRAGETTES MAKE FORT OF MONUMENTS

London, April 20.—A number of enterprising suffragettes this morning took possession of the Monument which stands near the northern approach to London bridge and commemorates the great fire which destroyed the city of London in 1666.

Ascending to the top terrace they displayed two flags and a white cloth banner in the sufficient colors on each of which was written in white felt pens on a black card:

"Victory or death."

Having securely fastened the flag to the railings surrounding the building the women locked themselves inside the tower preventing the police from ascending the winding staircase of 334 steps leading to the top.

Then they took up their position on a balcony and showered suffrage literature among the crowds which gathered below.

For a long time traffic was suspended in one of the busiest districts of London. They maintained their position on the monument for more than an hour.

While they were holding the fort an heavy missile thrown from the top of the monument narrowly missed injuring a number of spectators.

The police finally had to requisition the services of a locksmith who forced the door at the bottom of the shaft. When the police appeared in the street escorting the women who had defiled them the spectators became so intense that the constables were compelled to take their prisoners back into the monument until reinforcements arrived.

Over one hundred policemen were required to protect the women from the angry mob who held the monument.

The suffragettes were stylishly dressed and appeared little perturbed by the excitement they had created. They were released a short time after they had reached the police station.

W. A. Ogle came up from Ashford Sunday.

FIRE SATURDAY AND SUNDAY SMALL DAMAGE

The fire department was called out Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock to a fire at the home of Mr. B. B. on East Crawford Street. The firemen reached the scene in time to prevent any serious damage. The fire was caused by an oil stove.

Again at 8:30 Sunday night the fire department was called out to a fire on Headland Avenue which proved to be out the rear of the old water. A negro house had caught fire about half an hour ago and the firemen being unable to reach it with water, it was allowed to burn.

London, April 20.—A number of enterprising suffragettes this morning took possession of the Monument which stands near the northern approach to London bridge and commemorates the great fire which destroyed the city of London in 1666.

No grocer can buy too large a stock of this coffee. As a matter of fact, no dealer "keeps" French Market Coffee, but sells it at once and, because of the wonderful demand for this coffee and the frequent shipments he receives, his stock is always fresh. That's why you are always sure French Market Coffee is the freshest and finest flavored coffee any dealer sells.

There is never any chance of your getting old coffee if you avoid imitations by insisting on having the genuine French Market Coffee.

Sometimes your dealer

try to sell you slow-selling, old fees, grown old and flavorless from standing on the shelves. Protect yourself—insist on having the genuine French Market Coffee.

The Story of the Old French Market and Its Wonderful Coffee

The old French Market in New Orleans has been there for over 100 years. It is a low building with open sides filled with stalls from which are sold meats, vegetables, dry goods and miscellaneous articles. It is typical French for coffee now English is hardly spoken there, for the buyers like the sellers are mostly of French, Spanish or Creole descent.

Scattered through the building are both counters at which coffee and lunch are sold almost any hour of the day or night. Even before Spain sold Louisiana to France when coffee as a beverage was not known many parts of Africa, Asia, India, Malabar, Ceylon, etc., produced coffee, but it was not until the French colony of New Orleans began to grow that coffee without sipping the invincible blend. Andrew Jackson and his soldiers in camp at the Market for rest and refreshment. The old market is the only one in New Orleans left unburned by the great fire of 1878. It is the oldest building in the city.
